II/ORD

War Department, A. G. O., December 6, 1930.- To the Adjutant General, State of Texas, Austin, Texas.

1. The records show that one W. J. Alexander served as Major of McCord's Frontier Regiment of Texas Cavalry, and that one Almerine E. Alexander served as Colonel of the 34th Texas Cavalry, Confederate States Army, but the name Thomas Bratton has not been found on the rolls on file of either of the above named organizations, or on the rolls of any Texas organizations, Confederate States Army. Captain C. H. Roberts has not been identified.

2. The records show that one William A. Miller (name not found as William Elbert Miller), Private, Company I, 12th Texas Cavalry (also known as Parson's Regiment Mounted Volunteers and 4th Texas Dragoons), Confederate States Army, enlisted January 1, 1862, at Georgetown, for one year. The company muster roll for August 31 to December 31, 1863, last roll on file, shows him present. No later record of his has been found. Thomas Haley served as Captain of Company C, this regiment.

3. The collection of Confederate records in this Department is incomplete, and the failure to find the name or complete record of a person thereon is by no means conclusive proof that such person did not serve during some period not covered by the records.

C. H. Bridges,
Major General,
The Adjutant General.
